Dear Friends,

As I write this, the Octave of Prayer for Christian Unity has recently come to a close. It has been good to share with other denominations in prayer and fellowship. As in previous years, I have delighted in what we have shared and yet been reminded in sharper focus some of the challenges to us 'being one.'

At the end of May, in the days leading up to Pentecost, we're being encouraged to pray ecumenically again, joining together in the Prayer Initiative: "Thy Kingdom Come." (see the logo on the front cover.)

The Presidents of Churches Together in England issued their encouragement to all churches and Christians to engage:

We want to encourage our brothers and sisters in churches of all traditions to partner in praying 'Thy Kingdom Come' in the days leading up to Pentecost, from 25 May - 4 June, 2017. There is no prescription about how we should pray; we hope each church will participate in a way that is authentic to them and where possible to engage in this with their partner churches in their area.

The aim of 'Thy Kingdom Come 2017' is simple and threefold:

- To join with the whole family of God the Father
- To pray for the empowering of God the Holy Spirit
- That we may be effective witnesses to God the Son Jesus Christ

We pray to the Father that his family, called to be one in Jesus Christ, may see the outpouring of the Holy Spirit to transform many lives and communities in our land.

As a Circuit we hope to be engaged in planning what will happen in the York area, but I encourage all churches to start exploring how you can partner in prayer with neighbouring churches. More details will become available, but in the meantime please start to think, talk and pray about how you and your church can partners with others to pray: "Thy Kingdom Come."

With all good wishes,

Leslie

Stationing Update

The additions to the ministerial staff team for September 2017 continue to gradually take shape as follows:

Probationer Deacon

We have been matched with a Probationer Deacon: Judith Stoddart. She will be exploring York City Centre Ministry in partnership with Central Methodist Church. Judith will be joining us with her husband David, and three children Henry, Isabel and Christopher. Please keep Judith and the family in your prayers as they prepare to move to York in the summer.

Presbyter for Heworth, Dunnington and Stamford Bridge

We have been matched with the Revd Rachel Muthoni, an Ordained Presbyter from Kenya. Rachel is married to a Presbyter already serving in the Pocklington and Market Weighton Circuit. Rachel has been completing some study in Africa for the last few weeks but is soon to return and then a visit to hopefully confirm arrangements will be made.

Presbyter for Haxby & Wigginton and New Earswick

A Presbyter has not yet been matched with this appointment. However the Connexional Stationing Process continues and we ask for your prayers as conversations continue.

Thank you!

Many thanks to all who donated to our recent appeal to raise money for gifts to refugees living locally. Over £1,300 was raised. As well as generous gifts to families who have been resettled in York during the last year, a donation will be made to a local charity supporting resettled refugees.

Holiness and Justice this Lent

Revd Ian Hill has written a Lent Course for our circuit using the booklet 'Holiness and Justice' recently produced by the Methodist Church. Study materials are available from the circuit website or circuit office for any individual or group that would like to use them. If you are not able to use them during Lent, perhaps you could use the studies at a different time of year or as a home group?

On the Sunday before Lent, February 26th, there will be a Circuit Service at Acomb at 3 p.m. This will be entitled 'Making a Difference' and will introduce some of the themes from the Lent material.

Bible Month: 30 days with James.

In June- July 2017 the York Methodist Circuit will be taking part in Bible Month. This is a Connexional initiative to help increase and promote understanding of the Bible by spending a month looking at one book in detail, both in services and in small weekday groups. During Bible Month 2017 we will be looking at the book of James.

The month will conclude on 16th July at our circuit celebration at Central Methodist Church, where we will gather to look at how to apply what we have learned during the month to our day-to-day lives. We will be joined by a guest preacher and will share in fellowship with one another as we look at how our faith is worked out.

We'll be encouraging people to form new small groups to study James during the month, and will be running training sessions for new and existing group leaders who would like to learn more and be equipped for Bible Month. More details will be available soon— keep an eye on the notices or contact the circuit office. You can find out more on the Bible month website <http://www.methodist.org.uk/prayer-and-worship/bible-month>

Did you know?

Each October Methodist Churches are asked to submit the number of people who attend services and other events organised by their church. That may seem like just dull statistics, but did you know:

- ◆ That around 1,000 adults attend services in the circuit on an average Sunday, plus around 100 children and young people?
- ◆ That around 8,000 people have attended activities at Methodist churches in the last year?
- ◆ Around 400 people attend Messy Church in one of our churches (either monthly or quarterly)?

That is a lot of people who are seeing a little (or a lot) of the church at work!

St George's update

In December 2016 the congregation at St George's Methodist Church in Tang Hall held their last service. Many are now worshipping with the congregation at Heworth.

However this isn't the end for St George's. A team of people drawn from around the circuit have come together with a vision to plant a new worshipping community into the area, and for the building to be used in mission to the community.

A new church council has been appointed and together with others from around the circuit are working out what this church will look like. We are also working with York Community Church who are already engaging with the local community to see how we can partner with them and complement what they are offering. We are also exploring the possibility of student involvement in the project, including the use of flats at the church as a base for community life.

The new team are meeting to pray and worship together at St George's on 3rd February, including making two new members. Later in the spring we hope to hold a launch event for the new congregation— more news to come.

There is still much more to explore, and if you are interested in being part of this as we think and pray about the future we'd love to hear from you— please contact Leslie Newton or the circuit office. We would also value your support in prayer as we look ahead to an exciting future.

Congratulations!

Congratulations to Acomb and Haxby & Wigginton Methodist Churches who have both been awarded £100,000 in connexional grants towards the redevelopment of their premises. There are exciting plans to make both church buildings more welcoming to visitors and to better serve the needs of their members and the community. Talk to church members to find out more about the 'Opening New Doors' (Haxby) and 'Jubilee' (Acomb) projects.

Working Together

Partnerships between churches can take many forms, from formal Local Ecumenical Partnerships to informal working together, joint services, prayer meetings or other events. We're going to shine a spotlight on a few examples to hopefully get you thinking about how your church might be able to achieve more in partnership with others.

- Strensall joint advent service

The Anglican and Methodist churches in Strensall celebrated the beginning of Advent in worship together. We offered two united afternoon Advent services for the village. One was on the Saturday afternoon – an all age service where we were delighted to welcome lots of families. The other was on Sunday afternoon, the first Sunday in Advent. The twilight provided a powerful context to lighting Advent Candles - especially when we took candles outside at the end of the service committing ourselves to be light-bearers to the village.

It was so good to worship together in this different way, celebrating our unity and committing our churches to travel together through the coming year.

- Trinity sharing agreement

Since 2014 Trinity Methodists have shared their building with the Ark church. The two churches hold separate services on Sundays but have fellowship together and support one another's mission. To provide longer term stability a Sharing Agreement has now been signed between the churches, giving Ark a larger role in making decisions about and maintaining the church building.

We'd love to hear from others about partnerships between churches and where these are working well. Please send a paragraph or two about the partnership to the Circuit Office.

Readers' services

As I have gone around the circuit as a Methodist Reader I have been very impressed by those people doing the bible readings. They have made the Bible passages come alive and make prayers so very meaningful and enhanced my services so much. I have had some people ask about how one becomes a Reader and I wondered if others would be interested in finding out more. If so, then ring me on 0190 4793229 or Leslie Newton.

There is a small amount of training to be done, but a Methodist Reader's main task is to read a full pre-prepared service and to make it sound as if it is not being read. We are there to fill in places on the plan that would otherwise be 'Own Arrangements.'

Is this something that you could do?

Frances Priestnall.

Circuit council report

- The reinvasion of Revd Ian Hill to the circuit for 4 years from September 2018 was agreed. Ian and Jackie will be moving to Poppleton to begin ministry in a different part of the circuit from September 2017. Please keep Ian and Jackie and the church at Heworth in your prayers during these changes.
- A new circuit logo is being designed to reflect our vision.
- The meeting shared in small group discussion exploring how God is working in our churches.
- Revd Keith Albans has accepted the appointment as Superintendent of the York Circuit from Sept 2017. The circuit is still in stationing for a presbyter for Haxby & Wigginton and New Earswick. A Deacon for the city centre and Probationer for Heworth are direct stationing appointments which we will hear about in due course.
- Teasdale House, Easingwold has now been sold and replaced with a house in Copperclay Walk. The Vesper Drive manse is to be sold and replaced with a property off Beckfield Lane. A new property on Main St, Poppleton is being purchased to replace Dene Holm.
- Bible Month and Circuit Celebration: in June there is a connexional initiative to study the book of James in services and small groups. The circuit will take part in this and it will culminate in a celebration gathering on 16th July.
